Notice

ILSR-JU PhD 2023 Notification on Research Eligibility Test (RET), 27 March 2023

After initial scrutiny of the application forms received within due date by the ILSR Office and through ILSR official email address, a provisional list of candidates who are to appear for RET, to be held on 11. 04. 2023, from 12-2 pm at ILSR Office premises, Asanna Building, New Town, Rajarhat, Kolkata (near Rabindra Tirtha and Sister Nivedita University or near the Neotia Maternity Hospital) is being published here. Candidates are required to report to the examination venue positively by 11.15 am on 11 April, 2023 for the RET examination. List of Candidates who have been exempted from RET is also being published here on the basis of documents received. Candidates appearing for the RET are asked to come with a valid identity proof (original copy of Aadhar card/Voter ID card/Passport) and the original copy of their Secondary Examination (Madhyamik or equivalent) Admit card. Without these identity proofs, they will not be allowed to sit for the RET examination. There will be two essay-type questions of twenty marks and a few objective-type questions of ten marks, totalling the RET to be of fifty marks. Questions will be on research methodology and research domain knowledge (research areas/domains have already been mentioned in the ILSR-JU 2023 PhD advertisement). Candidates are asked to closely look at the published lists here and if any candidate finds her/his name missing (inadvertently) in the lists of RET candidates and RET-exempted candidates, in spite of the fact that they applied for the PhD programme within the due date, then they are asked to positively report such cases at toilsr.2022@gmail.com positively within 03.04.2023 with proper proof of their application within due date. Candidates are also advised to regularly visit the ILSR-JU website to know about future notifications related to the exact date of the PhD viva voce which will be notified soon in the ILSR-JU website. Submitted documents as provided by all candidates have been scrutinised however if, at any stage of time, any discrepancies or falsehoods are found in any of the documents submitted or in any statement as mentioned in the application form, then the candidature of such candidates will be cancelled.

Handwritten signature in red ink with the date 27/03/2023 written next to it.
